Parking In Front Of The Church

As we look out for all our Parish Family members, please do not park in front of the main entrance of the Church. In order to keep everyone safe, this area should be left as a drop off zone for people with mobility issues, emergency vehicles, the Smile van, etc. Thank you for taking care of your brothers and sisters in Christ.

St. John the Baptist Parish would like to congratulate the newest members of our parish family who were baptized in April. May they always be surrounded by God's love.

Homily Corner

This is a recap of my homily from the previous weekend. This past Sunday's homily was on the readings for the Second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday. The first reading was Acts 4:32-35, the Responsorial Psalm was Psalm 118, the second reading was 1 John 5:1-6 and the Gospel reading was John 20:19-31.

In the Gospel today, we see Jesus appearing to his loved ones. He is very busy visiting his disciples, his friends, the people who truly love him. Each time he appears, he says three key things, which give the people he is appearing to courage and strength.

He always starts with the greeting, "Peace be with you." When we hold onto grudges, when we are greedy, when we are prideful, and when we have many other sinful inclinations, peace is not there. It is only through Jesus, by following his teachings, that we attain true peace.

The second thing he says is "Receive the Holy Spirit." Sometimes we are sad, troubled, angry, have anxiety. When this happens it can be said that the world is out of breath. Jesus breathes on us and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit is life, giving us courage, right judgment, wisdom, and all the gifts we need to bring the world back to where it should be. When we look at the history of the world we see troubled times throughout. The world today is in fear. Fear of death, fear of uncertainty. Jesus gives us the confidence to know he is with us and we will not die. If Jesus is giving the Holy Spirit, then you might ask, what is happening in the world today? The Gospel tells us that we must forgive and show mercy to others. That is the power of receiving God's mercy. We must give mercy to others. Forgive the sins of any, do not hold onto them.

Finally he always assures us "Do not doubt.", do not be afraid. Doubt usually comes from fear. Read Psalm 118 again. It says, "The Lord has punished me severely, but he did not give me over to death." Like a good father, God corrects us when we do wrong and this is done out of love. We are in a time of absence of grace in the world today. The world is suffering. We must look to the Holy Spirit for the courage and confidence to forgive others, to let go of grudges, to accept mercy from God and to give mercy to others.

As you spend time in quiet prayer and reflection this week, ask yourself what you are holding on to that you need to release. How can we show mercy to others?

See you next week as we reflect on the Third Sunday of Easter.

—Father Antony
