A Spiritual Act of Communion for those Self-Isolating

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Holy Mass Updates

We are truly blessed that our Church is open and we are grateful for all of our Parish Family who are looking out for each other and abiding by the directives that are in place. Please remember:

- You must sign up to attend a weekday or weekend Holy Mass. Please call, text or email Connie at 306-634-2190, 306-421-8447 or conniesjb@gmail.com.
- You must do the self-assessment before you arrive at the Church and have no symptoms of cough, cold, flu, or allergies. The self-assessment will be emailed to you the day before you are scheduled to attend a Holy Mass.
- The Province of Saskatchewan states that if you travel out of the province, you must self monitor for symptoms of Covid-19 for 14 days. During the 14 days, we ask that you seriously consider where you have travelled to and who you have been in contact with and whether it is safe for you to come to Church. If you decide that you are confident in coming to Church, you will be required to wear a mask during your 14 day self monitoring.
- If you have travelled to or through the West Central or Southwest parts of Saskatchewan in the past 14 days, we ask that you do not come to the Church.
- Social distancing will be adhered to.
- If you would like a copy of the Directives for Attending Holy Mass, please contact Connie.

Your cooperation with all these items allows us to celebrate safely. Thank you!!

Homily Corner

This is a recap of my homily from the previous weekend. This past Sunday's homily was on the readings for the 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The first reading was Wisdom 12:13. 16-19, the second reading was Romans 8:26-27 and the Gospel reading was Matthew 13:24-43.

This week, our readings continue to give us insights into the Kingdom of Heaven. We have two more weeks of the readings following this theme. This is Jesus' vision for us, his disciples.

In the Gospel reading this weekend, we have the parable of the weeds among the good seeds. In the conversation between the workers and the master, the workers ask the master if they should pick the weeds in the crop. The master tells them not to, because they may inadvertently pick the good plants as well. He tells them that at harvest time, the weeds will be separated from the good plants and the weeds will be burnt. Jesus very clearly explains how this parable is a look at what we can expect of the Kingdom of God.

God is so concerned, protective and loving of the good that he keeps us safe always. He is our Father, our creator and our protector.

The last few lines of the first reading say, "Through such works you have taught your people that the righteous must be kind, and you have filled your children with good hope, because you give repentance for your sins." Sometimes, we judge, accuse, or blame people in our family, people we work with, etc., but when we read this reading, we see that if we are the righteous, the good, we must be kind. We cannot judge other people. The people we are judging may be doing the best they can for themselves. We don't know what struggles they are going through. If we are good, holy, amazing and just, we need to be more kind to the vulnerable, the lost.

This week, as you spend time in quiet reflection, pray about how God is protecting you. How can you stop judging people and be kind to everyone?

See you next week as we reflect on the 17th Sunday of Ordinary Time.

—Father Antony
