First Friday Parish Eucharistic Adoration

6:45 - 8 pm

Could you not Watch with Me One Hour?

St. John the Baptist Parish will be offering an All Souls' Day Holy Mass on Thursday, November 2 at 7pm.

We will be remembering all our loved ones who have passed away and especially honoring those who passed away this past year. As we prepare for this celebration, you are invited to write your deceased loved ones name in the Memory Book in the main entrance of the Church.

Following the Mass on November 2, everyone is invited for a social in the Church Auditorium. Please join us!!

And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.

APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION SACRAMENTUM CARITATIS OF THE HOLY FATHER BENEDICT XVI

Prayer for the dead

32. The Eucharistic celebration, in which we proclaim that Christ has died and risen, and will come again, is a pledge of the future glory in which our bodies too will be glorified. Celebrating the memorial of our salvation strengthens our hope in the resurrection of the body and in the possibility of meeting once again, face to face, those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. In this context, I wish, together with the Synod Fathers, to remind all the faithful of the importance of prayers for the dead, especially the offering of Mass for them, so that, once purified, they can come to the beatific vision of God. (101) A rediscovery of the eschatological dimension inherent in the Eucharist, celebrated and adored, will help sustain us on our journey and comfort us in the hope of glory (cf. Rom 5:2; Tit 2:13).

Building Project Update

The building project is nearing completion. The exterior of the building has been completed with the windows and doors will be installed over the next week.

Drywall is completed and painting is continuing. Ceiling tiles will be installed soon and electrical work is almost completed.

The sidewalk along the main entrance is open and the fence has been removed.

Remaining landscaping will be completed as weather cooperates.
