Estevan Regional mini convention at Bienfait on Saturday, Oct. 29. Guest presenter newly appointed Archbishop Don Bolen from Regina. Mass begins at 9:30 am. Please contact Elizabeth Olson at 306-634-4215 by Monday, Oct. 24, if you plan on attending.

In honor of All Souls' Day, St. John the Baptist Parish will be offering a Blue Mass on Saturday, November 5 at 7pm. We will be remembering our brothers and sisters who have died this past year. If you would like to include a loved ones name in the Mass but they passed away more than a year ago, please contact the Parish Office to have them included. As George S. Patton stated, "It is foolish and wrong to mourn the men who died. Rather we should thank God that such men lived." This will be a celebration of our deceased family members' lives.

First Reconciliation Coaching night is on Wednesday, October 26 at 6:30pm in the Church Auditorium. We will be completing the first lesson.

"Liturgical ministries: Anyone interested in getting involved with reading, communion ministry, hospitality, ushering, music, altar serving, soundboard, or PowerPoint, please contact the parish office. Training will be provided on an individual basis."

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary October 22/23, 2016

There is an interesting twist we find in today's gospel when we hear Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector praying in the temple. The Pharisee is "praying to himself." It doesn't mean he was praying silently. It seems to mean something a lot more troubling, that he is praying to himself; that God is not his prayer's intended audience. The words of the Pharisee are very much centered on himself: he makes claims about his character. He highlights his own admirable activities. Good stewards of their prayer lives know that a prayer of praise and thanksgiving should focus on the goodness of God. Do our prayers of thanksgiving always stay focused on God's unfathomable, immeasurable goodness and generosity?

The CWL Rummage Sale will be set up at St. Johns Community Center in the gymnasium. Anyone who is able to help is more than welcome too! Set up will begin on Monday, October 24 at 9am. The sale will be on Tuesday, October 25 from 12pm -7pm and Wednesday, October 26 from 1pm -7pm.

Book Club

The next meeting for the Book Club is on Thursday, November 3rd at 7pm in the Formation Room. Please read Chapters 4 & 5 for this session.

God Bless and Happy Reading!!

Lectors may pick up a Sunday Missal in the Vestry (Meeting Room) in the Church. Sunday Missals, left over, will be put on the tables at the entrance of the Church on November 26.
