The Wall of Remembrance is up in the main entrance of the Church. Please place your pictures of your deceased loved ones on the Wall in honor of All Souls Day. The Wall of Remembrance will be in the Church until the middle of November.

In honor of All Souls' Day, St. John the Baptist Parish will be offering a Blue Mass on Saturday, November 5 at 7pm. We will be remembering our brothers and sisters who have died this past year. If you would like to include a loved ones name in the Mass but they passed away more than a year ago, please contact the Parish Office to have them included. As George S. Patton stated, "It is foolish and wrong to mourn the men who died. Rather we should thank God that such men lived." This will be a celebration of our deceased family members' lives.

First Reconciliation Coaching night is on Wednesday, November 10 at 6:30pm in the Church Auditorium. We will be completing the first lesson.

"Liturgical ministries: Anyone interested in getting involved with reading, communion ministry, hospitality, ushering, music, altar serving, soundboard, or PowerPoint, please contact the parish office. Training will be provided on an individual basis."

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of October 29/30, 2016

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection. So does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being. God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow in their faith. Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.

Lectors may pick up a Sunday Missal in the Vestry ( Meeting Room ) in the Church. Sunday Missals, left over, will be put on the tables at the entrance of the Church on November 26.

Book Club

The next meeting for the Book Club is on Tuesday, November 1st at 7pm in the Formation Room. Please read Chapters 4 & 5 for this session.

God Bless and Happy Reading!!

Parish Office will be closed Tuesday, November 1 and Thursday, November 10.
